KEANDRE'S
LIFE

Keandre' Curry is a powerful author, entrepreneur, and motivational speaker. Nicknamed, the "Motivational King", Keandre' has promoted positivity living to everyone he could reach. Now, at the age of 26, Keandre' is a rising public figure with a brand of powerful literature and speeches. His dream is to be the leader of inspiration. That journey is before your eyes. Welcome to Keandre's Life through this 2021 Press Kit.

Biography

Afar thirty miles from his hometown Georgiana, Keandre' Curry was born in Andalusia, Alabama, on January 4th, 1995. Raised in a military home, he moved from Norfolk, Virginia to Great Lakes, Illinois. There in "The Quarterdeck of the Navy," he started a grassroots charity to stop crime in the year 2005. Through the charity's online website, he educated thousands of people and promoted resources for the families of crime victims.

Two years later, in the summer of 2007, Keandre' moved to his current residence in Jacksonville, Florida. Experiencing myriad changes in his life, he began to write daily. Keandre's artistic passion aspired him to write short stories and poems about life challenges, family, and self-discovery. Still ambitious, in eighth grade, he joined the soccer team at Mayport Middle School. Although, callow in the sport, Keandre' was credited to be the Offensive Player of the Year. That spring of 2009, he contributed on the men's track team in sprints, relay races, and the long jump. Competitive as he were in sports, he received continuous academic awards for A-B Honor Roll.

In fact, Keandre' taught character lessons to his peers, during an after-school program. Only 14-years-old, he discovered wisdom was his craft. As he progressed through high school, social politics advanced him to Class President. From Freshmen year to Junior year, Keandre' ran potent campaigns to be face of his class, at Fletcher High School.

No doubt, he was surprised at his ability to empower people; to believe in his message. After years of educational success, in 2011, Keandre' begin writing liberal articles for the concluded Morning Eyes Magazine; in which was an online Florida-based publication delivering personal viewpoints and information on top stories, entertainment, politics and other news. He also held transitory writing roles at Examiner.com, Helium.com, and the Yahoo! Contributor Network in the same time span. Not to mention, in 2012, Keandre' published a sex educational article for Rutgers University. Only 18-years-old, his roots continued to grow. In 2013, Keandre' graduated from First Coast High School, with French Honors. Afterward, in April of 2015, the intellect launched his online radio platform, Keandre Curry Radio. The flagship program for the network, "Good Talk," included multi-cultural music from aspiring artists from across the United States. More so, the show discussed social issues; from marriage equality to self-power.

Continuing his strive for greatness, in March of 2017, the motivator wrote his second book, "Beyond the Worst", an inspirational story of resiliency and unity. The powerful story wasn't enough, as to date Keandre' has self-published over six books, from the readers' favorites of "Uncomfortable" (2020) and "Earn Your Love" (2019).

Inspired by a dream of motivating the best out of people, some believe Keandre' Curry will be the future generation's President.

Q&A with Keandre'

- When is your Birthday?

My birthday is January 4, 1995. I'm team Capricorn!

- What inspires you everyday to write?

For one, I've always had the talent of creative writing. When I was in the 7th grade, I had to write a short story for the final exam. I received an A+ on the final exam and the teacher said my story made her cry. From then, I knew the impact of my writing and talent to connect readers to my emotions. What inspires me is giving people encouragement and inspiration through literature and media.

- What is your ultimate goal with your writing?

To become a Grammy-winning author or producer by age 30.

- Is there any other goals you have?

To be the host of an award winning television show.

- What is your favorite food?

I love honey BBQ boneless wings and soul food! Doesn't matter where I'm at, I'm looking for the BBQ!

- Do you have any brothers or sisters?

I am the oldest child, I have a brother and sister. We're all like two years apart.

- You write a lot, is there anything else you do in any free time?

Well, some people don't know that I have a talent and admiration for dancing. I love dancing because there is so many emotions behind every move. Dancing is defiantly art.

- What is something unique about you?

I wrote my first book at age 17, all by myself. Life is complicated itself, but during those teen years there are so many changes going on .. Trying to find yourself. So to be able to write a 50 page book is pretty dope.

- How is life being an Author at such a young age? Any roadblocks?

It's up and down, to be honest. The ups is the respect I've gained for my work and the image that comes with being searchable on Google and all that. The downside is you lose friendships so often, because get intimidated by your success. You become their competition, even when you don't look at that way. There's always so much pressure to be successful and sell as many books possible. In the public figure life, it's really about being liked or not.

- In your opinion, are you liked?

I would hope so. I believe I'm a great person to keep close.

- What is your IG?

My hashtag for IG and twitter is: @keandrecurry

Have you had unprotected sex with your partner, multiple partners or anonymous partners? Have you injected drugs or steroids or shared needles or syringes with others? Have you had unprotected sex with someone who could answer yes to any of the above questions? If so, you should get tested for HIV. I did.

Before sex for the first time with your partner, go get tested just to make sure you both are negative—not only just for HIV, but for other sexually transmitted diseases (STDs). It is very important for both you and your partner to be tested, just to be on the safe side. I've had many friends say that they went to get tested and the results were negative, so that meant their girlfriends were also. That assumption could be right, but isn't always true. It is possible to have a partner who is positive and not be positive yourself—yet. What you don't know can hurt you.

When I went to get tested for the first time, I was hesitant because I didn't know what the results were going to reveal. I knew that my history wasn't as safe as it should have been, so I was pretty scared. I was so scared
